8:30 AM – 4:00 PM

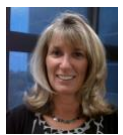

Delores B. Lindsey, Ph.D. retired as Associate Professor of Education at California State University San Marcos, but did not retire from the education profession. As a former teacher, site administrator and county office administrator, Delores is well-known nationally and specifically in the north county area as coauthor of numerous books on Cultural Proficiency Randall B. Lindsey, Ph.D., coauthor of numerous books on Cultural Proficiency, is Emeritus Professor at California State University, Los Angeles. He has served as a teacher, an administrator, executive director of a non-profit corporation, and served as administrator at Redlands University and California Lutheran University.

Mercedes Hubschmitt is Director in Learning Support for the Poway Unified School District. She previously served as a teacher and high school counselor before her tenure as a central office administrator. While in Poway USD, she has been recognized by California State Assemblyman Brian Maienschein as Counselor of the Year.

Cindy De Clercq has been an educator the past 39 years as a teacher, administrator and central office school supervisor. She has spent most of her career in suburban Poway Unified School District in northern San Diego, California.

Outcomes from the professional learning experiences include:

- Narrowing and closing access and education gaps
- Reducing and eliminating disproportional outcomes among student ableness, languages, and discipline/behavior and academic placement.
- Building professional capital (CTAs) within the district to grow and support large-scale change initiatives focused on access and equity for all students.
